

The 9th International Conference on Residual Stresses

The 9th International Conference on Residual Stresses intended as a continuation of the successful series initiated in Garmisch-Partenkirchen (Germany, 1986) and continued in Nancy (France, 1988), Tokushima (Japan, 1991), Baltimore (USA, 1994), Linköping (Sweden, 1997), Oxford (UK, 2000), Xi'an (China, 2004) and Denver (USA, 2008).

Preliminary registration

Prospective participants are requested to express their interest in the participation by sending an e-mail to icrs9@mf.mpg.de containing the following information: Name, affiliation and field of interest (e.g. residual stresses in coatings, diffraction measurement of stresses etc) at any time. You will then be added to a mailing list and receive further circulars and updates by email.

Accommodation in Garmisch-Partenkirchen can be booked in many different guest houses and hotels. A wide range of accommodation standards and prices, ranging from bed & breakfast-type accommodation to five-star hotels is available. Further information can be found soon on the web pages (keep an eye on www.mf.mpg.de/icrs9).

Call for contributions

Participants are invited to submit an abstract of their contribution using the format described in the Instruction for Authors section of the website (deadline: see below). The abstracts will be collected in a booklet available at the conference. Contributions can be presented as posters or oral communications, on the basis of author's request and evaluation by the scientific committee.

It is planned to publish papers of all accepted contributions in the form of Conference Proceedings.

Manuscripts should be submitted at the Conference.

Support

A number of grants for colleagues from less-favoured countries will be made available. To be eligible, candidates should provide a brief curriculum vitae and the abstract of their intended contribution. Support can be partial or total, depending on fund availability.

Deadlines and important dates

Abstract submission: 29th February 2012

Acceptance notification: 31st March 2012

Registration deadline (early registration fee):
15th April 2012

Registration deadline (full fee): 1st July 2012

Conference: 7th - 9th October 2012

Fees

The conference fee including lunches and dinners as given in the schedule below as well as coffee breaks, abstract booklet and conference proceedings will be of the order of 400 € (early registration) for regular participants and about 300 € (early registration) for students.
